EU BUSINESS SCHOOL NAMED ONE OF THE BEST BUSINESS SCHOOLS IN SPAIN BY FORBES

- Thanks to its MBA and the Master's in Management programs, EU Business School (EU) has been recognized as one of the top business schools in Spain by Forbes.
- Forbes evaluated professional success, quality of education and internationalization, among other criteria, attesting to EU Business School's innovative learning approach and international community, which prepares graduates for successful careers.

EU Business School (EU) is proud to announce that it has been named one of the best business schools in Spain by prestigious Forbes. This year, in addition to its MBA program, Forbes has selected EU's Master in Management program as one of the top 10 programs in Spain for recent graduates and young professionals.

An international panel of experts selected by Forbes evaluated the master's and MBA programs at institutions across Spain using criteria that highlighted professional success, educational offer, quality and resources and level of internationalization, among others. EU Business School achieved the Forbes recognition thanks to its commitment to preparing graduates for successful international careers through an active, hands-on learning approach, a cutting-edge portfolio of programs taught by academics, entrepreneurs and industry professionals, as well as its diverse community numbering more than 130 nationalities.

Mr. Carl Craen, managing director of EU Business School, proudly stated: "We're delighted that Forbes has recognized our institution for excellence, highlighting our innovative MBA and Master in Management programs in particular. This recognition underscores our commitment to practical, hands-on learning in a truly global setting, which equips our students to thrive in today's rapidly transforming business world. Our approach is clearly resonating with industry leaders and demonstrates how we prepare our graduates for successful international careers."

EU Business School offers a diverse range of programs tailored to meet the evolving demands of today's industries. The cutting-edge portfolio of MBA programs features 10 majors in high-demand business sectors, including international business, global banking and finance, digital communication, digital business, entrepreneurship, international marketing and sports management. The master's programs are equally innovative, with a range of offerings such as artificial intelligence for business, fashion and luxury, business analytics, data science, and digital business.
