EU BUSINESS SCHOOL CLIMBS THE QS 2026 MBA RANKINGS REFLECTING THE SUCCESS OF ITS HANDS-ON APPROACH TO INTERNATIONAL BUSINESS LEARNING

- EU's on-campus MBA climbs 50 places to rank among the world's top 110 programs and achieves over 90% for return on investment, reflecting its commitment to preparing work-ready graduates with industry-aligned skills. In Europe, it rises 13 places to reach 37th position.
- EU's online MBA consolidates its position at #34 globally and #16 in Europe, earning above-average scores for its dynamic class experience, among others.
- EU's online and on-campus MBA programs achieve a maximum 100% score for international student ratio, a key feature of its study experience, bringing together students from more than 130 nationalities every year.

EU Business School (EU) is proud to announce that its MBA programs have climbed the prestigious QS 2026 MBA Rankings, with our online MBA ranking #34 worldwide (#16 in Europe) and our global MBA ranking in the top 110 worldwide (#37 in Europe). This significant rise highlights EU's continued commitment to innovation and to delivering a future-forward business education, whether on campus or online, giving students the practical skills, entrepreneurial mindset and global perspective that ensure success in the global business world.

The global MBA was recognized for excellence across key criteria, including diversity, employability and return on investment, climbing 13 places to be ranked #37 in Europe and 50 places globally to rank in the top 110 programs worldwide. EU secured a maximum score of 100% in international student and student gender ratios which further reflects the diversity and internationality of the business school's student body. With over 130 nationalities represented, EU creates a truly global learning environment that prepares students to excel in international business contexts.

Our online MBA exceeded global averages across all key QS indicators: employability, faculty and teaching, class profile and class experience. It rose in the rankings from #39 to #34 worldwide and has obtained the #16 position in EMEA. Its online MBA classroom is built around a hands-on learning approach, with live sessions and webinars led by expert faculty who bring both academic credentials and real-world industry insight. The experience is further enriched by On-Campus Weeks in Barcelona, Geneva and Munich, as well as the option to participate in Business Immersion Weeks virtually or on campus, which offer students hands-on business exposure, company visits and international networking opportunities.

Both programs scored highly for employability, reflecting EU Business School's focus on preparing students for professional success through a carefully curated portfolio of industry-aligned programs, a dedicated Career Support Department and a pragmatic, hands-on learning approach. In addition, EU provides students with unparalleled networking opportunities, including access to world-renowned business leaders and visionaries through its flagship "Learning From Leaders" conference series.

In response to these rankings, Mr. Carl Craen, managing director of EU Business School, stated: “I am delighted with this outstanding outcome, which reflects our commitment to preparing our graduates for professional success. EU’s distinctive, hands-on approach to learning equips our students with the skills, mindset and real-world knowledge that are in high demand across the international business landscape.”

The QS MBA Rankings are compiled by QS, a trusted independent organization with over 25 years of experience in assessing business programs on a global scale. They assess programs offered by top further education institutions located across the globe, using a bespoke methodology to apply specific criteria.
